The love of friend and lover
 Is often sweetly sung;
 But no greater love than the Saviour's love
 Can be told by mortal tongue.

With value more than money
 Or jewels rich and rare,
 There is naught on earth of an equal worth -
 Oh, His love's beyond compare.

There is no greater love than that of Christ above
 That made Him stoop to earth, become a man,
 And by His death provide redemption's plan.
 There is no greater love; that's why I'm singing of
 God's love so rich and free revealed at Calvary.
 There is no greater love.

If He had died for angels
 Or seraphim on high,
 We could understand - but amazed we stand,
 That for sinners lost He'd die.

There is no greater love than that of Christ above
 That made Him stoop to earth, become a man,
 And by His death provide redemption's plan.
 There is no greater love; that's why I'm singing of
 God's love so rich and free revealed at Calvary.
 There is no greater love.
