Words of one of the special songs this morning

Sometimes a light surprises the Christian while he sings; it is the Lord, who rises with healing in his wings: when comforts are declining, he grants the soul again a season of clear shining, to cheer it after rain.

In holy contemplation we sweetly then pursue the theme of God's salvation, and find it ever new; set free from present sorrow, we cheerfully can say, "Let the unknown tomorrow bring with it what it may."

It can bring with it nothing but he will bear us through; who gives the lilies clothing will clothe his people too: beneath the spreading heavens no creature but is fed; and he who feeds the ravens will give his children bread.

Though vine nor fig tree neither their wonted fruit should bear, though all the field should wither, nor flocks nor herds be there; yet God the same abideth, his praise shall tune my voice, for, while in him confiding, I cannot but rejoice.

You shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Isaiah 55:12

As children of God, we welcome all who have come to bow heads and hearts before the Lord in reverence and love.

Call to Worship

Praise awaits our God, in Zion; to Him our vows will be fulfilled.
All of us will come to Him who answers prayer.
When we are overwhelmed by sins, He will forgive our transgressions.
Blessed are those He brings near to live in His courts!
We shall be filled with the goodness of His holy temple.
God our Savior answers us with awesome and righteous deeds,
He is the hope of all the ends of the earth.

We will worship Him and praise His name!

—Psalm 65:1-5
